

Please do not take KLOVE away from us for LPFM stations. Since I have been clean and sober I have discovered how vital God is in my life and this radio station has provided for me a peace throughout my day by playing positive and encourageing music that makes me think of my Lord and Savior all day instead of stealing and doing drugs. God has really used this station to minister to me and many more like me . Thank You William Taylor